
The life on the screen

March 31 – May 7, 2011

Perry Bard, guest curator

Opening:

Video program

Saturday, April 2, 2011, 4-6 p.m.

Perry Bard, Screen Shot, 2011, screen shot

Life On The Screen is a program of videos curated online by Perry Bard.

From download to upload the selected videos mine the internet to explore, analyze, mimic, remix, the methods and materials of networked culture.

Videos by Annie Abrahams, Natalie Bookchin, Josh Bricker, Petra Cortright, Martin Kohout, Kristin Lucas, Merton, Casey Neistat, Lorie Novak, Jon Satrom, Roel Woeters and Jonathan Puckey.

Also featuring www.artfemtv/women_artists/ created by Evelin Stermitz and www.perpetualartmachine.com/ created by Lee Wells

Biography

Perry Bard is an artist and curator who works and lives in New York.

In 2010, her videos was exhibited during the first Youtube Biennial at the Guggenheim Museum in New York. She has exhibited video and installations internationally: New York MOMA, at Scanner Video Festival and Lincoln Center. She participated in many events such presented at Sao Paulo Biennial, Southeast Museum of Photography, MOCA in Georgia, Reina Sofia Museum in Madrid, at Rex Cinema of Belgrad, at Forum Dessau by Ostrannenia and VIPER of Basel.